Troy's Experience

Troy Mansell joined Austbrokers Phillips in October 2007 when his workers compensation consulting company, Australian Compensation Services, was purchased by Phillips. Since then, Troy has focused on integrating the workers compensation and insurance broking businesses to create an organisation that is focussed on managing and advising clients on all aspects of risk management.

In April 2009, Troy was promoted to the position of CEO for the Austbrokers Phillips group. Troy has a background in Business Development and has used these skills to develop new channels of business including a National Timber Scheme and a stronger local area presence.

Aligning the business around meeting client's needs is a goal Troy set out to achieve when he took on the role of CEO. Austbrokers Phillips now have 2 distinct divisions; Business Services which looks after all our Business clients insurance and risks needs and a Private Client department which manages clients individual financial planning, general and life insurance.
